Dear friends,

The snow in New York has melted (at least in the city) and we're eager to get ACTIVATE HERE! up on our partner's websites.

The video premiered this April at the Disability Policy Seminar in Washington D.C., and after a few more tweaks we'll make it available to everyone!

Haven't seen our trailer yet? Watch it here.

Check out facebook for more details as they become available!

Let's start a conversation!

We're working on bolstering our online presence on platforms like Facebook and Twitter. We want to engage and participate with our fans and allies on a personal level and we think social media is a great way to do it.

Help us harness the power of Twitter and Facebook by liking or following us on the profiles below, invite your friends too. Give us a review, suggest interesting media or articles, or just say hello!

Diana Presents!

This month Diana took a trip to Dixon, Illinois to give presentations on Independent Living. Dixon was the institution where Diana lived as a child. We were so happy to see Diana come full circle and explain the importance of independent living having lived on her own for many, many years. Diana presented Body & Soul: Diana & Kathy to over 200 self-advocates and staff, followed by a presentation on living independently.

BRAVO DIANA!!

If you're interested in having Diana speak at your organization please contact outreach@welcomechange.org
