"Unboxing Ableism"

This month, Trusted Source spotlights "Unboxing Ableism." This video, part of the "Unboxing with Dylan Marron" series, features the writer-performer humorously critiquing the politics and social patterns surrounding ableism. The series itself highlights many of society's big issues with intelligence, comedy and an awareness for the underrepresented, all with the aim of starting a conversation. Here's hoping to start another. Enjoy!

THREE REASONS TO WATCH

PRODUCTION VALUE

The video features swift editing, great music and sound effects, and a slew of props to help make a point and keep the audience engaged.

HUMOR

Ironic, refreshing and effective, Dylan's humor is sarcastic and sometimes scathing, but it is a strong tool that makes his message resonate.

TRUTH

Dylan takes on everything from language to politics to Hollywood in order to highlight certain hard truths about how society treats and reacts to people with disabilities.

There is so much exciting and well-made media about disability. The challenge is knowing where to find it, and how to use it.

Trusted Source is a monthly media recommendation that you can use in your trainings and classrooms, and that you can share with your networks. We hope you find these pieces as insightful and inspiring as we do.
