Happy Spring From Welcome Change!

We're excited to catch you up-to-speed with what's been happening in 2019

The Dismantled...

This Saturday, April 6th, at 3 PM, there will be a reading of two scenes of the “The Dismantled” as a part of the ReelAbilities NYC Festival. Written by Jason DaSilva and co-directed by DaSilva and Alice Elliott, this reading is a part of ReelAbilities' Writing Disability Panel. Gregory Mozgala will be reading the part of Billy. The event will take place at the JCC Manhattan. FREE WITH RSVP!

Happy Birthday, Larry!

April 2nd was the anniversary of Larry's birthday! To celebrate Larry's life and accomplishments, we have two special events to in his honor.
For those local to New York, we are having a screening of The Collector of Bedford Street at the Greenwich House Music School on May 1st, 2019!

After a long trial period, we have set up a new way to honor Larry's life and legacy by using QR codes! Once scanned via smartphone, these codes - which are right on Bedford Street, in the community Larry dedicated his life to - will take you to a specific weblink where you can learn more about Larry. This is a great way to spread the word about Larry's life. If you're in the neighborhood, please take a scan! We will be updating the QR codes from time to time, so keep an eye out for them along Larry Selman Way!
