When We Walk screened at Human Rights Watch

HUMAN
WATCH

Human Rights Watch Film Festival screened When We Walk by Emmy winner Jason DaSilva. Our very own Academy-Award nominated, Alice Elliott of Welcome Change Productions is credited as an Executive Producer on this project.

When We Walk follows DaSilva as he navigates through life with primary progressive Multiple Sclerosis. The first film in this trilogy, When I Walk took home the Emmy® for Outstanding Informational Programming in 2015. His new documentary takes place several years later, chronicling DaSilva's struggle to keep his son in his life. Watch as this auto-biographical film featuring themes of identity, generational division, and life with a disability, all tie to one father's fight to keep his son in his life.

NYC Disability Pride 2019

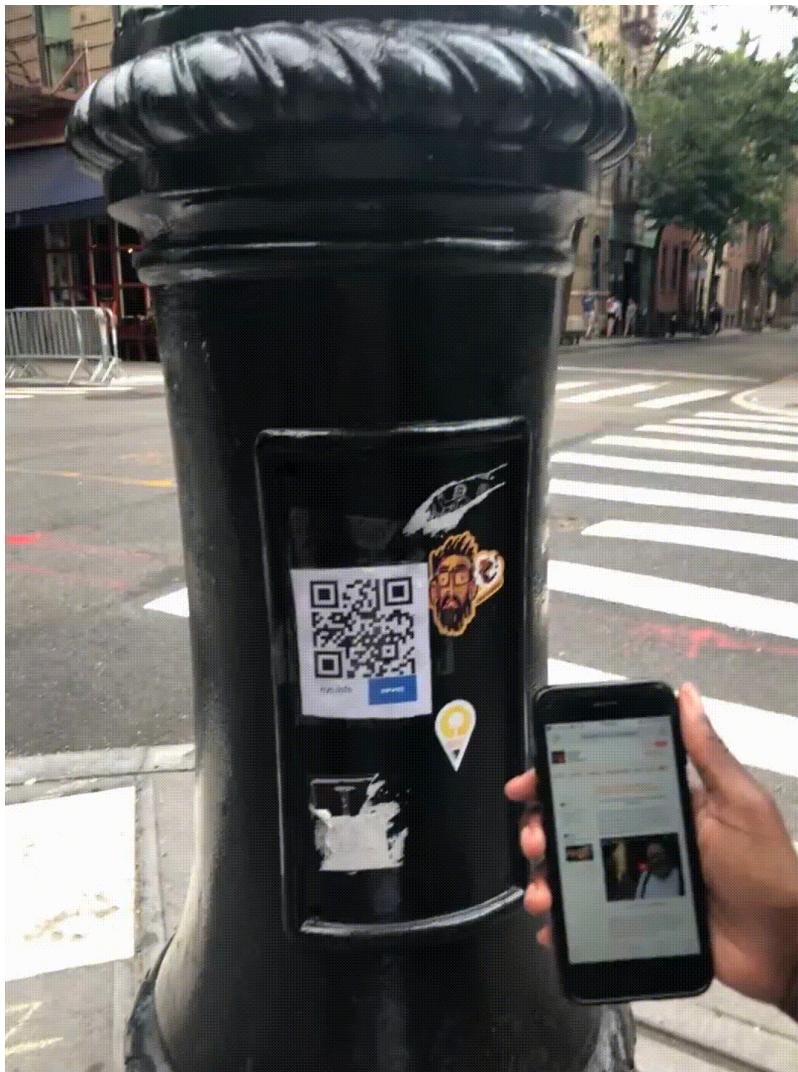

SAVE THE DATE... On July 14th New York City will host their annual Disability Pride Parade. This will be the 5th one since coming to New York in 2011. Alice Elliott will be there seeing as how she hasn't missed a single one! See if you can spot her. See you there!

For those local to New York, there is a registration available if you would like to take part in the parade.

Giving More About Larry.

Still going strong, we have set up a way to honor Larry's life and legacy on the block he once resided. We have posted QR codes where once scanned via smartphone, these codes, stationed right on Bedford Street will take you to a weblink where you can learn more about Larry!

This is another great way to spread the word about Larry's life. If you're in the neighborhood, please take a scan! We will be updating the QR codes from time to time, so keep an eye out for them along Larry Selman Way!
